The Essex County Environmental Center is located among 1,300 acres of wooded parkland along the banks of the Passaic River and provides a unique location for meetings, seminars and other events. Our professional staff is ready to develop a nature program to fit your needs and the serene setting and modern facilities are ideal for workshops, retreats and school activities. We look forward to hosting your next event.

The Essex County Environmental Center is located in a wooded wetland habitat with access to the upper Passaic River. It is an interesting and affordable site for school groups, scouts, and others to take a naturalist-led field trip or host a private event. Save gas, stay local and explore nature in your own Essex "backyard"
