Library Programs ~ Imagine Your Story

An Essex County Environmental Center Staff Naturalist will travel to your library to offer a one-of-a-kind summer experience!

FOR AGES 5 to 9 YEARS

IF YOU WERE BORN 800 YEARS AGO!

Explore Native American Life with a hands-on presentation that discovers how the Lenape people survived and thrived using sticks, stones and bones. Make and take an animal track story with stamps.

IF YOU WERE A MONARCH BUTTERFLY!

Use magnifiers and microscopes to discover the fascinating life history of the Monarch Butterfly and what we can do to help pollinators. Build-a-Bug to learn about their anatomy.

IF YOU WERE A SHREW!

Read the story of S.T. Shrew and learn about all the creatures that share our forests. Dissect an Owl Pellet to uncover food web dynamics.

Imagine Your Story™ is a trademark of the Collaborative Summer Library Program™

All programs include a Story and a make-and-take Craft
Maximum of 20 students per class
